Kata PATAKY is a certified instructor of the Monty Roberts method. She certified in 2009, and made her further studies in England and with Monty himself at the Flag is Up Farms, California. Her purpose is to help people and horses gain a better understanding of each other with this wonderful method in Hungary and the surrounding countries. She agrees that with the help of this method - and the horses of course - people can learn a lot about themselves and they can get a true and clear feedback about their own statement. Therefore she believes that HAE experts can benefit a lot by understanding the nature, motivation and psychology of the horses, while they are practicing and learning the Join-Up® process.

Gábor SUHAI and Zsófia SEMSEY have been working together in horse assisted education, trainings and one-to-ones for 10+ years now. They both have a degree in different fields of psychology. They have spent 1000+ hours with clients in the Picadero.

Zsófi and Gábor believe that the only effective way of developing soft skills and leadership competences is through self-reflection and utilizing personal resources. Besides the common studies and beliefs their working styles are different. Their personalized strengths and background knowledge turn into a special balance during the trainings and workshops.
